

Nation-Builder Constitution

To use what I know about Australia's Federation to assume the role of a nation-builder.

Preamble

We, the people of federation name, in order to

Principle _____,

Principle _____,

Principle _____,

Principle _____,

Principle _____,

Principle _____,

do ordain and establish this constitution for the federation name.

Article One: Bill of Rights

List five rights every citizen of the federation is entitled to.

Article Two: Legislature

Who can be elected to parliament? How many houses of parliament are there? What are they called? How many people sit in each house of parliament? How long can they serve in parliament?

Article Three: Executive

Who is the head of state? How is the prime minister selected? How long can the prime minister serve in the role?

Article Four: Judiciary

How are judges selected to run the courts? How many judges are there? What qualifications must they have? Do the courts have juries?

Article Five: Responsibilities

What is the federal government responsible for? What is the state government responsible for? Is there any overlap in responsibilities? Who has the ultimate say in matters of mutual importance?

Article Six: Alterations to the Constitution

Can changes be made to the constitution? Is it by referendum or a vote by the members of parliament?