

GUPTA EMPIRE EULOGY

A eulogy is something that is written after a death that honors their memory. The Gupta Empire has long since fallen and it is important for us to honor their memory. The Guptas left us with many things that we still use today.

- Your Eulogy has to be at least 4 stanzas – each stanza should honor an advancement from their society. You must also explain why their advancements are important to us today. These can include and are not limited to... (8 points)
 - Organized central government
 - Education
 - Math
 - Medicine
 - Architecture
 - Literature
- You must also make sure you have a strong introduction and closing statement. (2 points)
- This is NOT an essay about Gupta's; please make sure you use the correct tone in your eulogy. Eulogies are used to honor one's life!
