

HOW TO listen to a podcast

where?

- In the car, on a bus, plane or train
- While doing a mindless activity, like washing dishes or coloring
- With family (Have a family podcast night!)

why?

- To find out information you're curious about
- To laugh, cry, or be inspired!
- To learn both sides of a debatable issue before taking your stance
- To learn tips & tricks for creating your own podcast!
- To train your brain for better listening what?

Ask your teacher for recommendations!

Did you know podcasts can be fiction or non-fiction?

how?

Be sure to hit pause after a long chunk of information to take notes or to process what you heard. Look up any unfamiliar words!

If you find your mind wandering, hit the "rewind 15 button" and listen again.

THANK YOU!

Hey there!

Thanks so much for purchasing! I hope you and your students love this resource. It always amazes me how much TpT connects classrooms around the world.

If you have any questions at all about how to use this product, please feel free to e-mail me:

hello@alissamcdonald.com

- I'd absolutely love to see your product in action! Please tag me so I can share.
- If you see a mistake, please help me out by letting me know so I can fix it right away!
- Like my products? Here's how to get more:
  - Follow my TpT page
  - Visit my blog
  - Click the link in my TpT banner to sign up for freebies!

CLICK TO FIND ME

Alissa
MCDONALD

Have you ever thought about selling your teaching resources? Visit my webpage for a free Selling Your Resources Starter Kit!

Teacher by Naptime Thank You Page!

beautiful graphics + fonts by:

Find me....

Check out my complete podcasting unit here:

www.teacherspayteachers.com/store/teacherbynaptme