

2.5.1.1 Research report.

Research the classification of the koala. Include the different species you find. Write a brief report about where koalas live, their eating habits, life span, how they breed and any other information you find interesting. Include at least two pictures.

