

Ancient History

WACE written examination—2010 design brief

Stage 2

Time allowed

Reading time before commencing work: ten minutes

Working time for paper: three hours

Permissible items

Standard items: pens, pencils, eraser, correction fluid, ruler, highlighter

Special items: nil

Additional information

The examination is presented in a combined question/answer booklet. There is a separate document booklet.

Section	Supporting information
Section One Document study 50% of the written exam Two questions Suggested working time: 90 minutes	Question 1 Documents for this question are derived from the prescribed contexts found in the Stage 2A unit—historical trends and/or movements. Candidates respond to ONE set of documents from ONE of the prescribed contexts listed below: Egypt—the rise and fall of the Old Kingdom (Dynasty 0 to Dynasty 6) OR Greece—Emergence of the Greek City states in the archaic period OR Rome—the Late Republic—from the Gracchi to Sulla Question 1 consists of three parts which may be structured as a series of open and/or partially open standardised questions. Candidates are required to answer all parts of the question. Documents are used. Suitable documents include letters, contracts, treaties, histories, speeches, artifacts, inscriptions, archaeological materials, modern sources etc. There are five documents per prescribed context. Candidates are only required to select three items to discuss.
	Question 2 Documents for this question are derived from the prescribed contexts in the Stage 2B unit—confrontation and resolution. Candidates respond to ONE set of documents from ONE of the prescribed contexts below: Egypt—Dynastic Struggles and Empire—Tutmosis II, Tutmosis III and Hatsheput OR Greece—The conflict between the Greeks and Persia from 511 to 479BC OR Rome—From Pompey to Augustus to 27BC Question 2 consists of three parts which may be structured as a series of open and/or partially open standardised questions. Candidates are required to answer all parts of the question. Documents are used. Suitable documents include letters, contracts, treaties, histories, speeches, artifacts, inscriptions, archaeological materials, modern sources etc. There are three documents per prescribed context: two ancient and one modern, and candidates respond using all three documents.

Section	Supporting information
Section Two Essay Part A: Unit 2A 25% of the written exam One question from a choice of three Suggested working time: 45 minutes Part B: Unit 2B 25% of the written exam One question from a choice of three Suggested working time: 45 minutes	Candidates are required to write an extended response in a structured essay format. They are required to respond to ONE of three alternative questions from Part A and ONE of three alternative questions from Part B. Candidates are expected to draw on their knowledge of ONE of the prescribed contexts to answer the questions. These questions in Part A are context-specific and are drawn from the content of Unit 2A. Egypt—the rise and fall of the Old Kingdom (Dynasty 0 to Dynasty 6) OR Greece—Emergence of the Greek City states in the archaic period OR Rome—the Late Republic—from the Gracchi to Sulla These questions in Part B are context-specific and are drawn from the content of Unit 2B. Egypt—Dynastic Struggles and Empire—Tutmosis II, Tutmosis III and Hatsheput OR Greece—The conflict between the Greeks and Persia from 511 to 479BC OR Rome—From Pompey to Augustus to 27BC