

CHINESE: SECOND LANGUAGE ORAL STAGE 3 SAMPLE EXAMINATION

Section 7 of the New WACE Manual: General Information 2006–2009 outlines the policy on WACE examinations.

Further information about the WACE Examinations policy can be accessed from the Curriculum Council website at http://newwace.curriculum.wa.edu.au/pages/about_wace_manual.asp.

The purpose for providing a sample examination is to provide teachers with an example of how the course will be examined. Further finetuning will be made to this sample in 2008 by the examination panel following consultation with teachers, measurement specialists and advice from the Assessment, Review and Moderation (ARM) panel.

Instructions to candidates

1. The rules for the conduct of Curriculum Council examinations are detailed in the Student Information Handbook. Sitting this examination implies that you agree to abide by these rules.
2. The total time allocated for the oral examination is 30 minutes (15 minutes preparation and 15 minutes interview and role play).
3. During preparation time, you will prepare responses to the stimulus materials and role play situation and make notes as required. You may refer to monolingual and/or bilingual dictionaries during the preparation time.
4. Notes made during the preparation time must be handed to the examiner and may not be used during the interview. Dictionaries must be handed to the examiner and may not be used during the oral examination.
5. Instructions for each section of the oral examination are given in this preparation booklet.

PREPARATION

There are TWO sections to the oral examination: a discussion and a role play. You will have 15 minutes to prepare for the two sections in a separate room. Make sure you allocate 15 minutes to each section.

Section A: Stimulus monologue (5 minutes)

You will be given five stimulus pictures. Choose one and make notes using the picture.

Your notes should relate to personal situation and your view on the content of the picture.

You will present an unrehearsed monologue response to stimulus. Examiners may prompt if required. You can make notes in the preparation time and refer to the notes in examination.

Section B: General conversation based on 3A/B unit description (10 minutes)

Conversation with prompts

You will be engaged in general conversation based on 3A/B unit description and themes. Wherever possible questions will be open and prompts may be used by examiners.

General introductory questions will be used by the examiner to initiate the conversation followed by questions related to the stimulus picture.

SECTION B: Conversation
Ex: Text 210 minutes [10 marks]

Student introduces text 1

This is a Chinese restaurant.
It sells dumplings, noodles.

Examiner: Do you often eat out?

Answer: My family likes to go to Chinese Restaurant. We don't often Go. We go to a restaurant to celebrate birthdays.

Which is your favourite restaurant?

I don't have one. My parents like to go to many different ones.

Do you eat Chinese or western food at home?

We usually eat Chinese food, but sometimes my mum cooks western food. I mostly like steak and chips.

Which do you prefer ?

Chinese.

What is your mum's best dish?(nashou haocai)

I like her fried noodles.

Why?

Because she puts in a lot of seafood. I like prawn best.

Possible situations:

You have a Chinese visitor and you are planning the weekend activities.

You are to find out what the visitor would like to do and try to match it to your preferences.

For example :

Student:

The weather is going to be nice this weekend. Where would you like to go?

Examiner:

I hear Western Australian beaches are very beautiful.

Student:

The beach is too hot. We should go there this afternoon. Have you been to King's Park?

Examiner:

No, where is King's Park?

Student:

It's close to the city. We will catch a bus from the city. From King's Park we can see the whole city.

Examiner:

That will be nice.

Student:

We can then take a train to Fremantle and have fish & chips for lunch. We can also visit the market.

Examiner:

That's Saturday; what about Sunday?

Student:

We will sleep in tomorrow as we are going to meet a couple of friends and we are going to Northbridge to have dinner at a hotel. Maybe catch a movie if you don't feel like nightclubbing.

Examiner:

I would like to see a kangaroo or two.

Student:

I know where we can go on Sunday, the wildlife park. You can see a lot of Australian animals there.

Examiner:

My lecturer told me Australian wines are excellent.

Student:

That's right. You must try our wines.

Examiner:

I am going on a Day Tour to visit some wineries.

Student:

I will go with you.
