Sample program: Unit 1A Le monde des jeunes

Unit description The focus for this unit is le monde des jeunes (the world of youth). It introduces students to the French language and culture from a personal perspective, enabling them to share personal information and obtain information from others related to personal identity, aspects of living in France, and popular culture. Students learn about, and engage in activities associated with their own world and personal identity, including relationships, daily activities, aspects of living in a French-speaking community and youth culture. They discover that they share some common values and aspirations, and confront similar issues in their daily lives. Students develop an understanding of what it is to be French and French-speaking, and compare their own lives to those of others in French-speaking communities.

Learning contexts: Teachers may determine a variety of learning contexts (examples shown below), ensuring coverage of the three nationally required themes of The Individual, The French-speaking Communities, and The Changing World.

The Individual	The French-speaking Communities	The Changing World

Salut! Moi, je m'appelle Bernard, j'ai 17 ans, je suis français et j'habite en France, à Marseille. La date de mon anniversaire, c'est le quinze mai. J'ai les yeux bleus et les cheveux blonds. Je suis fils unique. Souvent, je porte des lunettes de soleil. Je suis amusant, énergique et sociable, mais quelquefois un peu impatient et égoïste. J'aime voyager, inviter des amis et regarder des films. Je suis très sportif et je fais du sport presque tous les jours, surtout le foot. Je joue après les classes avec mes copains. J'ai beaucoup de copains, mais ma meilleure amie, c'est Madeleine. Nous sommes amis depuis trois ans. Elle est dans ma classe, elle est sérieuse et calme, mais dynamique. Elle est formidable! Nous allons au cinéma, ou à la plage le week-end. J'adore les animaux, surtout les chiens. Chez nous, on a deux chiens, un petit terrier et un grand berger allemand. Je déteste les chats – et le chocolat!

2 (M)

Bonjour! Je m'appelle Youssou. Je suis sénégalais et j'habite en Suisse. J'ai 16 ans et mon anniversaire, c'est le trois juillet. J'ai les cheveux noirs et les yeux bruns. Je suis de taille moyenne. J'ai deux frères et une sœur. Nous avons un chien, un chat, une perruche et un lapin. J'aime beaucoup les animaux. Mon jour préféré, c'est le samedi. Le samedi après-midi je joue au tennis avec mes copains, mais mon passe-temps préféré, c'est le vélo. J'ai un vélo tout-terrain et je fais du vélo tous les jours. Je n'aime pas beaucoup la musique mais j'aime bien la télévision et le cinéma. Mon acteur préféré c'est Gérard Depardieu. À la télé, j'aime regarder des émissions de télé-réalité, je trouve qu'elles sont super cool! J'aime aussi la lecture, surtout les bandes dessinées. Moi, je suis une personne assez optimiste et indépendante. J'adore mes frères et ma sœur et j'aime voyager avec ma famille. Ma couleur préférée, c'est le noir.

3 (F)

Salut! Moi, c'est Angélique et j'ai 19 ans. J'habite en Belgique, mais je viens de la Tunisie. Mon anniversaire, c'est le vingt-huit août. J'ai les cheveux noirs, longs et raides, et les yeux marron. J'ai un frère et une sœur. Mes couleurs préférées sont le bleu et le rouge. Je suis assez petite et je ne suis pas très sportive. J'aime la natation et le ski, mais je déteste le football, la boxe et le rugby. Je déteste aussi les émissions sportives à la télé. Je regarde surtout les émissions musicales et la télé-réalité. J'adore 'Nouvelle Star', c'est un peu comme Idols ou Popstars. Moi, je suis une personne sincère et sensible, mais quelquefois obstinée. Je suis très sociable, drôle et bavarde, et j'ai beaucoup d'amis. J'aime aller au café avec mes amis, on prend un sandwich et après on fait du shopping en ville. Je n'aime pas les animaux, mais nous avons des poissons rouges.

4 (F)

Salut! J'habite à Paris en France, mais je suis canadienne. Je m'appelle Véronique. J'ai 18 ans et je suis grande. J'ai les cheveux courts et bouclés. Mes cheveux sont roux et j'ai les yeux verts. J'ai une sœur, qui a 21 ans. Mes parents et ma sœur habitent au Canada, à Montréal. Mon anniversaire, c'est le premier février. J'aime beaucoup les sports d'hiver, comme le ski, le snowboard et le patin à glace. J'aime faire du ski dans les Alpes, et souvent en hiver, je vais à Chamonix avec des amis le week-end. Je suis ambitieuse et assez intelligente. Quelquefois, je suis un peu négative et rebelle. J'adore la musique et regarder des émissions musicales à la télé. J'aime participer à une émission de télé-réalité comme Loft Story ou Big Brother. Je n'ai pas d'animal chez moi, mais au Canada nous avons un cheval et un grand chien. J'aime les animaux, mais à Paris, c'est difficile. Ma couleur préférée, c'est le vert.

Sample program: Unit 1B La Francophonie

Unit description: The focus for this unit is la Francophonie (the francophone world). It is aimed at students who have basic knowledge and skills in French. Students consolidate and develop their language skills in order to share information about their own sense of space and place. They extend their knowledge and understanding of the diversity of the francophone world, focusing specifically on a French-speaking region, community or country. They explore lifestyles in different communities and examine how cultural, physical, historical and environmental factors have impacted on the French language. This helps them to develop an awareness of the implicit connection between language and the attitudes, values and beliefs of different francophone communities.

Suggested learning contexts:

The individual	The French-speaking communities	The changing world
- networks and friendships - my virtual trip to a francophone country.	- life in a French-speaking community - regions of France.	- our French connections - France's role today.

This program outline assumes that students have had prior learning in French.

TASK 2

Part A: (30 marks) (20%) Part B: (40 marks) (20%)

Time for the task:

Part A

You would like to spend your holidays in Morocco. To help you decide where and when to go, read and compare different itineraries in the brochure you picked up from the travel agent. Answer all the questions in English unless indicated otherwise.

Helpful hints to: improve your viewing, reading and responding skills:

- identify key words/information and new words as you go
- apply understanding of French linguistic resources (e.g. identify verbs, adjectives, nouns and how they relate to each other)
- use a dictionary to check meaning
- use visual support/clues to assist interpretation of meaning and to predict meaning
- identify similarities between the French text and similar English texts.

Part B

To promote Perth/WA/Australia and attract young French speakers to the country, Tourism Australia is preparing a brochure in French. They have asked for your help in writing an interesting itinerary for a one week stay in one of the Australian states or cities. Be creative and try to make the itinerary as

Helpful hints to improve your writing skills:

- plan/draft your itinerary to ensure accurate spelling, punctuation and simple grammatical structures
- use your dictionary to check spelling and words/phrases
- use simple conjunctions to produce a cohesive text
- include interesting activities and sights to see
- incorporate intercultural understandings for the French visitors.

You will need to hand in:

- ☐ Part A – Answers in English.
- ☐ Part A – Answers in French.
- ☐ Part B – Notes, draft and final copy of the itinerary in French.

Maroc

 Mar'oxygène

Site
Circuit itinérant au pays des villes impériales et des grands espaces. Un voyage de 20 jours original et riche en découvertes culturelles, visites et moments de détente.

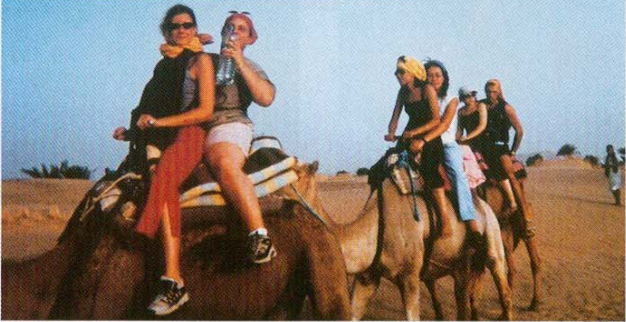

Voyage
En train de Paris et Poitiers à Bordeaux. En avion de Marseille et Lyon à Bordeaux. Autocar grand tourisme au départ de Bordeaux.

Programme
Les grandes étapes :
Paris, Bordeaux, Irun, Madrid, Algésiras, Meknès.
Traversée maritime pour le Maroc. Route pour Fès, avec ses tanneries et ses puits de teintures dans son exceptionnelle Médina, véritable labyrinthe de ruelles. Continuation vers Meknès, ville des marchands et des souks. Traversée du Moyen Atlas jusqu'à Azrou où des singes vivent en liberté dans une forêt de cèdres. Route vers Beni Mellal, immense verger, où vous dégusterez les meilleures oranges du Maroc. Vous découvrirez ensuite les cascades d'Ouzoud, chutes d'eau de 110 m de hauteur, classées parmi les plus beaux sites du pays.

Marrakech, ses remparts, ses rues sinueuses, ses souks et ses charmeurs de serpents. Essaouira et sa plage de sable chaud. Visite de Casablanca, la plus grande ville du Maroc et le site de l'extraordinaire Mosquée Hassan II. Une étape à Moulay Bousselham, petit village de pêcheurs, avec sa lagune où vivent échassiers, goélands et faucons pèlerins. Retour vers la France en passant par Tanger, Séville et Madrid.

Notre avis
Circuit pour les routards qui vous donnera un avant-goût de l'Afrique avec balade en chameau et baignade dans l'océan Atlantique... Ça vaut le détour !

Sample program 2AFRE c'est la vie!

Unit description: The focus for this unit is c'est la vie! (that's life!). It is primarily aimed at students who are ready for further development. They explore their own culture from a teenager's perspective and compare it with what it means to be a teenager in France. Students share information about their health, their free time and future plans. They also explore notions of national or regional identity, and other forms of culture specific to France. Students consider the impact of technology and globalisation on French-speaking communities. Students develop the knowledge, skills and intercultural competence to communicate about being a teenager, moving into adulthood, coping with pressures, socialising and developing relationships. They examine the influence of French cuisine in the world and events and activities associated with French-speaking communities, such as festivals and soccer.

Suggested learning contexts:

The individual	The French-speaking communities	The changing world
- my well-being - my free time.	- French sports, arts and entertainment - influence of French cuisine.	- the Olympic Games - international organisations and their work.

This program outline assumes that students have had prior learning in French.

TASK 2

Part A: (15 marks) (15%) Part B: (20 marks) (20%)

Part A

Phosphore magazine has asked its readers to write in and tell them how they are trying to maintain an active and healthy lifestyle. Read through some of the comments from different young people talking about their interests and lifestyles and participating in a discussion about one's own, comparing and contrasting with those in the passages.

Helpful hints to: improve your viewing, reading and responding skills:

- identify key words/information and new words as you go
- apply understanding of French linguistic resources (e.g. identify verbs, adjectives, nouns and how they relate to each other)
- use a dictionary to check meaning
- identify similarities between the French text and similar English texts.

Part B

Participate in a discussion about your own interests and lifestyles, comparing and contrasting them with the comments from the people in the passages.

Helpful hints to improve your speaking skills:

- plan your conversation referring directly to the texts you have read
- identify appropriate information to prepare
- apply understanding of French linguistic resources e.g. identify verbs, adjectives, nouns and how they relate to each other
- provide examples of your intercultural understandings
- use supporting information/material to assist in varying the exchange.

You will need to hand in:

- ☐ Part A – Answers in English.
- ☐ Part B – Preparation notes (for interview in French).

TASK 2

Part A: (15 marks) (15%)

You must complete this task in English.

Henri

J'adore les sports extrêmes dans l'eau. Je vis dans l'Ardèche et il y a plein de gorges et de torrents. Je fais beaucoup de rafting et de canyoning. On est en plein nature, ça recharge les batteries. Il y a aussi une certaine prise de risque et ça, j'adore. Je suis vraiment en bonne forme. Pour faire cette sorte de chose il faut que je fasse attention à ce que je mange. Si c'est un jour où je fais quelque chose de sportif, je prends un petit déjeuner copieux. Je mange des féculents le soir avant et pendant la journée je mange des choses sucrées pour me donner de l'énergie.

Alice

Je sais ce qu'il faut manger, mais je ne le fais pas. Je commence la journée avec un petit déjeuner normal - du café, des toasts. Mais vers midi j'ai toujours faim et heureusement il y a un Macdo près de mon bureau. Pour moi, un Big Mac ne suffit pas. Alors je prends normalement un autre. Si j'ai mauvaise conscience, je prendrai une salade avec. Je commence la semaine avec de bonnes intentions. Je marcherai au bureau, je ferai du jogging le soir... Mais j'ai toujours une bonne excuse. Le soir je suis si fatiguée que je m'installe devant la télé, un bon vin rouge à la main. Je préférerais lire un roman à me promener.

Albert

Je suis végétarien, mais je ne suis pas fanatique. Je ne fume pas. Je bois rarement de l'alcool. Si j'ai faim je prends un fruit entre repas. J'habite à Biarritz et il y a de bonnes plages pour le surf. Je suis fana de surf. L'été tous les vacanciers arrivent pour profiter du soleil et des plages. Alors je voyage moi-même en été. Je vais surfer à l'étranger. C'est plus difficile comme touriste d'être végétarien, parce qu'il faut dîner dans les restaurants où il y a souvent un choix limité pour les végétariens.

Sample program: Unit 2BFRE Voyages

Unit description The focus for this unit is voyages (travel). It is aimed at students who are ready to engage with more complex language and develop their skills to a higher level. They interact with French speakers in either Australia or France and begin to view their own culture from the perspective of a French-speaker. They explore cultural understandings critical to participating in a successful student exchange, experiencing family and school life in a French-speaking community and compare how they would prepare a French-speaker for an exchange trip to Australia. Students share information about where they have been and where they hope to travel to in the future, and discuss what young people should consider when planning a trip and travelling. They look at Australia as a tourist destination, especially for French-speaking travellers, and how Australians are viewed in France. Students also examine the role and influence of technology. They explore, compare and comment on stereotypes of Australia and Australians and of France and French-speakers.

Learning contexts Teachers may determine a variety of learning contexts (examples shown below), ensuring coverage of the three nationally required themes of The Individual, The French-speaking Communities, and The Changing World.

The Individual	The French-speaking Communities	The Changing World
- my travel plans and tales - my country, your country - my world, your world - me in France - welcome to Oz!	- on exchange - let's celebrate! - francophone holidays - francophone festivals	- virtual travel - exploring the French-speaking world on the net - tourism and hospitality - shifting borders

UNIT FOCUS: Voyages Travel

PART A: (40 marks) (30%)

In this task you will read an article about young French peoples' holiday plans and respond to one of them in email form.

Time for the task

Suggested class time with teaching and learning activities leading up to this task: 4-5 weeks (16-20 hours of French).

What you need to do:

Read comments from a survey in which young people were questioned about how they planned to spend their upcoming summer holidays. For each contributor develop a character profile, based on the information given in their comments. Answer questions in English. Then imagine you are one of the three young people and your holiday is coming to an end. Write a (final) email to your family, in which you tell them what you have been doing and whether everything happened as planned. It must be clear from your writing who of the three people you have chosen to be.

You will improve your viewing, reading and responding skills when you:

- recognise text-types and their features
- concentrate on what you do understand
- identify the purpose of the text
- identify key words, main ideas and supporting detail and highlight them in the text
- look up words that you don't understand and write the translation next to the French word or expression
- apply your understanding of French grammar rules to interpret text
- are able to interpret cultural differences and similarities
- use visual support/clues to assist interpretation of and predict meaning
- take notes and organise your information logically.

You will need to hand in:

- ☐ Your character profiles in English
- ☐ Your additional questions answered in English
- ☐ Your notes and draft email in French
- ☐ Your email in French

UNIT 2BFRE

Assessment Task 1 Part A : Mes vacances d'été

Assessment type: Response

Question 1: Read the following French text and complete the task that follows in English.

Christine, 16 ans

Moi, cet été, je vais faire un tour chez nos amis anglais. Ma sœur habite et travaille à Londres cette année et j'en profiterai pour visiter Londres et ses environs. Ça me permettra d'améliorer un peu mon anglais car l'an prochain, je passe le bac et en ce moment, ce n'est pas mon point fort. Il paraît aussi que Londres est super ! Beaucoup d'animation, de choses à faire et à voir, des restaurants, des cafés, des spectacles . . . Et c'est une ville très cosmopolite. J'espère rencontrer non seulement des Britanniques, mais aussi des gens d'autres nationalités. Ça me changera de la vie que je mène dans mon petit village de campagne. C'est aussi la première fois que je pars en vacances sans mes parents ! Ça va être génial ! Je m'entends très bien avec ma sœur. Mes parents sont sympas mais ils s'inquiètent trop pour moi. S'ils ont accepté de me laisser partir toute seule, c'est parce que je serai chez ma sœur. J'ai hâte d'y aller !

Thomas, 17 ans

J'ai l'intention de passer une quinzaine de jours en Espagne. J'ai travaillé toute l'année comme un dingue pour mon bac et je suis optimiste. Mais quels que soient les résultats, je suis décidé à m'offrir deux semaines de repos total ! Deux semaines à bronzer sur la plage, à ne rien faire. J'ai choisi l'Espagne car c'est beaucoup moins cher que la France, le climat est génial, il y a de très belles plages, les Espagnols sont sympas et je parle la langue. En fait, je considère passer une année là-bas, soit avant l'université, soit au milieu de mes études. Mes grands-parents sont d'origine espagnole et ils ont encore de la famille là-bas. Et ils ont promis de m'aider si je voulais y passer quelques mois.

Hervé, 17 ans

Je voudrais faire du cyclotourisme. Avec mon copain Antoine, on descendra vers la côte sur nos VTT. Comme nous sommes tous les deux fanas de cyclisme, on va faire notre mini-tour de France ! On prendra un minimum de bagages : une tente, quelques tee-shirts, des shorts, des trucs comme ça. On s'arrêtera dans des auberges de jeunesse et des campings pour dépenser le moins d'argent possible. On espère faire les différentes plages de la côte d'Azur et aussi un peu de cyclisme en montagne, dans les Alpes. En été, c'est super et en plus, il y a tellement de choses à voir dans la région ! Je me régale déjà, rien que d'y penser !

[From: Ça Va? (2000, mai/juin). 34(6), pp. 4–5]

In English, develop a brief character profile for each of the French teenagers, based on the information given in their comments. What are these three young people like? Answer the two additional questions for Thomas and Christine in English.

Christine's character:

Describe Christine's parents:

Thomas' character:

Describe Thomas' grand-parents:

Hervé's character:

Question 2: Imagine you are Christine, Thomas or Hervé and your summer holidays are coming to an end. Write an email to your family telling them about your holiday so far. Has everything happened as planned? What have you been doing? Complete this task in FRENCH and ensure that you include information from your reading.

The image shows a blank email form template. It has a header bar with a close button on the left and a maximize button on the right. Below the header, there are four rows of labels and input fields: 'À' (To), 'Envoyé' (Sent), 'De' (From), and 'Objet' (Subject). Each label is in a small box, and each input field is a larger empty box to its right. Below these fields is a large, empty rectangular area for the email body. On the right side of the body area, there are two small arrows (up and down) and a small icon at the bottom right corner.

UNIT: 2BFRE

TYPE: Oral communication

OUTCOMES: Outcome 2: Spoken interaction

CONTENT: Text Types; Linguistic Resources; Intercultural Understandings; Language Learning and Communication Strategies

PART B: (38 marks) (30%)

In this task you will talk about personal tales of travel, past, present and future. What are the journeys you remember from when you were little? What are the countries you would like to visit most of all? When and how do you travel and with whom?

Time for the task

Suggested class time with teaching and learning activities leading up to this task: 4-5 weeks (16-20 hours of French).

What you need to do:

After listening to the holiday plans of young French people it's your turn to talk. Your French friend has asked you to talk about the places you have been and seen in your next audio chat. Think about all the journeys and travels you have made, as well as those destinations that are still on your wish list. What are your most precious travel memories? What was your worst trip ever? How do you prefer to travel, on your own or with a friend or family? Do you like camping or do you prefer holiday resorts? Are you a beach bum or a backpacker? Try to make what you have to say as interesting as you can by using expressions, different tenses and a wide range of vocabulary. Brainstorm the topic and prepare a draft script of what you are going to say. Of course, you can expect some questions in return, so think about what they might be and how you could answer them.

You will improve your speaking skills when you:

- prepare and know the topic you are talking about
- use as much French as possible
- vary the phrases you know to say new things
- use mime, gestures and facial expressions
- anticipate questions you may be asked
- ask for clarification or repetition if you are stuck
- describe something if you don't know the word
- show understanding of cultural differences
- consider your audience and use an appropriate level of formality.

You will need to hand in:

- ☐ Your brainstorm notes
- ☐ Your draft script

TASK 2

PART B: (39 marks) (30%)

In this task you will write about the value of learning a second language, either based on the opinions of other young language learners or based on your own ideas and experiences.

Use the information you obtained from Task 2 Part 1 or consider your own personal experience.

Time for the task

Suggested class time with teaching and learning activities leading up to this task: 4–5 weeks (16–20 hours of French).

What you need to do

Remember the three young people from Task 2 Part A who were learning one or more foreign languages?

Consider their reasons for learning a second (or third) language and their feelings about being able to speak another language, then respond to the following statement:

‘Apprendre une langue étrangère est une perte du temps’.

OR

Write about your own experiences and feelings during your language-learning journey. What has it meant to you to learn a foreign language? What has been the best experience? What were the hardest moments? What was the most fun?

Strategies to help you improve your writing skills

- use text-type appropriate to the task
- consider context, purpose and audience of the text
- apply understanding of French grammar rules to write coherent and cohesive text
- use knowledge of cultural differences and similarities when creating text
- use exclamations to express your thoughts, feelings and impressions
- pay attention to accuracy
- look up words and phrases you don't know
- include as much detail as you can to make your writing varied and interesting
- draft, organise and edit your writing before submitting the final version.

You will need to hand in

- ☐ Your preparation notes
- ☐ The edited draft of your essay
- ☐ Your final copy

Assessment Task 2 Part B: Les langues, ça bouge!

Choose either Option A or Option B for this written task. Complete the task in FRENCH.

Consider the opinions of Etienne, Marianne and Laetitia about learning another language and respond to the following statement:

Write about your own experiences and what it has meant to you to learn a foreign language.

Sample program: Unit 3AFRE Les médias

Unit description: The focus for this unit is les médias (the media). It is aimed at students who have advanced skills and understanding and are ready to work at a more sophisticated level. They explore media influence and trends in their lives as well as in France and French-speaking communities. They explore more complex texts and particular text types, such as magazines and advertisements, and develop further insight into French cultures by analysing the place of these texts in everyday life. Les médias is a snap shot of what is current for French speakers, particularly young people and what is important to them; how they feel and what they do; sharing ideas and opinions about current events and issues of interest.

Learning contexts: Teachers may determine a variety of learning contexts (examples shown below), ensuring coverage of the three nationally required themes of The Individual, The French-speaking Communities, and The Changing World.

The Individual	The French-Speaking Communities	The Changing World
- what's in, what's not - personal choices - electronic interpersonal communication - my lifestyle	- media trends - role of the media in France - comics and cartoons - narratives in print and on TV	- advertising - technology's influence today - the culture of the masses

Stage 3 text types: Teachers must provide students with opportunities to engage with, and produce a range of text types from the list below. Teachers may also choose to introduce students to additional text types.

Print	Print	Non-print
Account (personal and narrative) Advertisement Article (e.g. newspaper, magazine, web page) Brochure/leaflet (e.g. travel, promotional) Comic/cartoon strip CV Description Diary/journal entry/web log (blog) Email Horoscopes Instructions/recipe Itinerary Letter (formal and informal)	Message/note News item Notice/sign Poem Poster Report Review Scripts (e.g. interviews, conversations, chat transcript, sketch) Subtitles Summary Survey/questionnaire Webpage	Account (personal) Announcement/notice Commentary Conversation Discussion Film/TV program (excerpts) Interview News item Role-play/skit Song Speech/talk/presentation

- apply your understanding of French grammar rules to interpret text
- are able to interpret cultural differences and similarities
- use visual support/clues to assist interpretation of and predict meaning
- take notes and organise your information logically

You will need to hand in:

- ☐ Your annotated text sheet
- ☐ Your response sheet with all questions answered

UNIT 3AFRE

Assessment Task 3: Les manchettes

Assessment type: Response

Read the following newspaper article and answer the questions in English.

TEXT 1:

Le champion français d'apnée se tue à l'entraînement

La corde qui faisait remonter Loïc Leferme, 36 ans, s'est bloquée pour une raison inconnue.

L'apnéiste français Loïc Leferme, 36 ans, recordman du monde de plongée en profondeur absolue ("no limits"), est décédé après un accident de plongée survenu au cours d'un entraînement en mer dans le sud-est de la France. Il a été transporté sur le port de Nice, où les pompiers ont tenté, en vain, de le réanimer.

Selon les premiers éléments, la corde chargée d'assurer sa remontée à la surface s'est bloquée pour une raison inconnue. "La corde s'est bloquée à cause de quelque chose sous l'eau, je ne sais pas quoi", a déclaré Cédric Palerm, moniteur au Cipa (centre international de plongée et d'apnée) qui se trouvait sur le bateau au moment de l'accident. Ses coéquipiers ont alors appliqué la procédure d'urgence et un plongeur est descendu le chercher. Il se trouvait alors à vingt mètres sous l'eau. A ce moment-là, « il était plus qu'en syncope », ont signalé ses équipiers.

Le 30 octobre 2004, Loïc Leferme avait battu le record du monde de plongée en profondeur absolue en atteignant les 171 mètres, dans la rade de Villefranche-sur-Mer. Son record a depuis été amélioré par l'Autrichien Herbert Nitsch (-183 m en août 2006). Dans le "no limits", considéré comme la discipline reine de l'apnée, le plongeur descend le plus profond possible avec une gueuse et remonte avec un ballon, la difficulté principale consistant à affronter l'extrême pression des profondeurs.

TEXT 2:

Read the following newspaper article and answer the questions in English.

Vers une interdiction totale du téléphone au volant ?

Une étude de la Sécurité routière vise à bannir l'utilisation du kit main libre des habitudes des automobilistes.

Un chiffre qui fait froid dans le dos : si aucun automobiliste ne téléphonait en conduisant, il y aurait une réduction de 7 à 8% du nombre d'accidents dans l'Hexagone. C'est le constat de l'étude réalisée par Jean Chapelon et Pierre Sibi de l'Observatoire national interministériel de la sécurité routière, et publiée dans Le Monde de jeudi.

Les deux experts recommandent "d'agir sur la réglementation en interdisant formellement toute utilisation du téléphone portable au volant". Reconnaisant que l'interdiction des kits mains libres "serait difficile à contrôler", ils estiment néanmoins qu'elle montrerait les dangers d'une telle pratique. Dans le cas d'accidents graves, elle permettrait également d'interroger les opérateurs de téléphonie mobile pour savoir si le conducteur était au téléphone.

"Communication forte"

Au vu de cette étude, le Conseil national de la sécurité routière (CNSR) a souhaité qu'une "communication forte" sensibilise à ce risque et que soit encouragée la pratique, déjà adoptée par certaines entreprises, d'interdire à leurs employés l'usage du téléphone lorsqu'ils conduisent en mission.

C'est dans ce cadre que la Sécurité routière a également fait appel à l'Ifop, qui a réalisé un sondage* auprès de 664 conducteurs possesseurs de portables. Résultats : 44% des sondés déclarent utiliser leur téléphone en conduisant, 41% un appareil tenu en main, 37% un kit mains libres. 67% d'entre eux considèrent qu'une interdiction totale serait une bonne mesure et seraient prêts à renvoyer les appels sur une messagerie. Cependant, les gros utilisateurs sont plus de la moitié (57%) à juger qu'une interdiction serait une mauvaise mesure.

* Sondage réalisé les 7 et 8 décembre auprès d'un échantillon national représentatif de 1.000 personnes âgées de 18 ans et plus.

Read the following newspaper article and answer the questions in English.

Choisir une formation pour l'international

Une jolie palette de possibilités s'offre aux étudiants qui souhaitent muscler leur CV avec l'opportunité de commencer leur carrière à l'autre bout du monde.

SE PRÉPARER à l'international n'est pas un luxe, c'est une nécessité pour mener une carrière d'envergure. « Aujourd'hui, un manager doit avoir une vision internationale, rappelle Hervé Passeron, directeur du groupe ESC Toulouse. Les jeunes diplômés doivent avoir la capacité d'envisager des concurrents étrangers, d'analyser de nouveaux marchés, de gérer des fournisseurs lointains, de manager des équipes multiculturelles... » Le groupe ESC Toulouse, qui propose à ses étudiants 70 accords d'échanges académiques, possède également son propre campus à Barcelone, où étudient 20 % d'une promotion.

Pour un étudiant de grande école de management, donner une coloration internationale à son CV est très facile. Il bénéficie le plus souvent des accords de partenariats signés par son établissement, ce qui lui permet d'étudier de trois mois à un an, voire plus, hors de France sans avoir à payer de frais d'inscription supplémentaires ni à allonger sa scolarité. 90 % des élèves de l'ESC Rouen partent ainsi à l'étranger dans le cadre d'un des 165 accords annoncés par le groupe. « Beaucoup d'entre eux restent fortement attirés par les pays anglo-saxons, mais depuis quelques années on note un intérêt croissant pour les pays émergents, comme la Chine, l'Inde, le Brésil, le Mexique, la Turquie, le Maroc..., assure David Butler, directeur des programmes Post Graduate du groupe ESC Rouen. Étudier et effectuer un stage là-bas permet de mieux comprendre les problématiques de développement et d'acquérir des réflexes utiles pour travailler sur d'autres marchés du même type. »

Answer the questions in English.

1. Explain the headline «Une jolie palette de possibilités s'offre aux étudiants qui souhaitent muscler leur CV avec l'opportunité de commencer leur carrière à l'autre bout du monde ». (3 marks)

2. According to Hervé Passeron, what must young graduates demonstrate? (5 marks)

3. What does the group ESC Toulouse offer to their students? (1 marks)

4. What has the director of Post Graduate programs of Rouen noticed in the last few years? (4 marks)

5. According to this article, what are the benefits of studying abroad? (2 marks)

Suggestion:

Teachers could also use this article to assess student's writing skills by asking them at later stage to respond to the following question in French:

Your school in Perth has decided to offer overseas study programs like the ESC Rouen group. Because of your French knowledge, you decide to apply for a study program in a French-speaking country. Write an application letter in which you introduce yourself, your school and give details of your work experience. State the reasons why you would like to take part in this program and why learning French is so important to you.

UNIT 3AFRE

TYPE: Written communication

OUTCOMES: Outcome 4: Writing

CONTENT: Text types; Linguistic resources; Intercultural understandings; Language learning and communication strategies

UNIT FOCUS: Les médias – The media

TASK 4 Je deviens journaliste!

PART B: (30 marks) (30%)

The famous French teenagers' magazine Planète jeunes heard about The Alliance Française French Film Festival being held in Australia every year and would like you to write a synopsis for one of the films presented at the Festival for their readers.

Select ONE movie from the Festival's program brochure and write a synopsis of it in French. You will be given 45 minutes in class to choose a film from the 2007 program and find information about this movie on the internet. During that time, you will be invited to take notes in English. Afterwards (using your English notes), write your synopsis in French and also share your thoughts and recommendations with the readers/your audience.

Time for the task

Suggested class time with teaching and learning activities leading up to this task: 4-5 weeks (16-20 hours of French).

You will improve your writing skills when you:

- use text-type appropriate to the task
- ting varied and interesting
- consider context, purpose and audience of the text
- apply understanding of French grammar rules to write coherent an cohesive text
- use knowledge of cultural differences and similarities when creating text
- use exclamations to express your thoughts, feelings and impressions
- pay attention to accuracy
- look up words and phrases you don't know
- include as much details as you can to make your writing varied and interesting
- draft, organise and edit your writing before submitting the final version.

You will need to hand in:

- ☐ Your preparation notes
- ☐ The first draft and edited version of your synopsis

Other suggestions:

1. It would be ideal for students to view a French movie from the Alliance Française French Film Festival rather than research it on the Internet. If possible, teachers could take their class to the Festival and allow students to take notes in English while viewing the film and then write a synopsis in French upon their return to school.

2. Teachers could also choose to view a French film of their choice in class, then brainstorm ideas with students in English and finally ask students to write a synopsis about the film for a French magazine.

Sample program for unit 3BFRE le monde qui nous entoure

Unit description: The focus for this unit is le monde qui nous entoure (the world around us). It is aimed at students who have well-developed skills and understanding, and show a sound knowledge of content as well as the development of a personal style. It allows students to use their skills to reflect on, critically evaluate and respond personally to more complex issues using advanced language and a wide range of text types. Students focus on environmental, political, international or social issues, or contemporary topics, which may relate to studies and goals beyond school. They contemplate their life as a student, possible educational and career pathways, current youth, environmental and social issues that are global in nature.

Learning contexts: Teachers may determine a variety of learning contexts (examples shown below), ensuring coverage of the three nationally required themes of The Individual, The French-speaking Communities, and The Changing World.

The individual	The French-speaking communities	The changing world
- looking back, looking forward - my environment.	- urban and rural problems - the old and the new.	- youth and world issues - world of work.

Stage 3 text types: Teachers must provide students with opportunities to engage with, and produce a range of text types from the list below. Teachers may also choose to introduce students to additional text types.
