

German

WACE Examination—2010 design brief

Stage 2

The German examination comprises a written examination worth 75% of the total examination score and an oral examination worth 25% of the total examination score.

Time allowed

Reading time before commencing work: ten minutes

Working time for paper: two hours and thirty minutes

Permissible items

Standard items: pens, pencils, eraser, correction fluid, highlighter

Special items: dictionaries: one combined dictionary (German/English and English/German dictionary) or two separate dictionaries (one English/German and one German/English dictionary). No electronic dictionaries are allowed.

Additional information

Dictionaries should not contain any notes or other marks and may be inspected during the examination. The examination is presented in a combined question/answer booklet.

Section	Supporting information
Section One Listening One third of the written exam 3–5 audio texts, 15–20 questions Suggested working time: 40 minutes	This section contains a maximum of 3–5 audio texts. Candidates respond to focus questions in German and/or English as specified in the question. Candidates hear each text twice.
Section Two Viewing and reading One third of the written exam Suggested working time: 55 minutes Part A: Vocabulary and structure 1–5 questions with subparts Part B: Reading 3–6 print texts, 1–5 questions with subparts, for each text	In this section the parts are not equally weighted. Part A comprises no more than one quarter of the weighting of this section of the paper. Part A: Focuses on the form and features of language from the units studied. Question formats such as multiple-choice, sentence completion, cloze and/or scrambled sentences are used. Part B: Contains between three longer and six shorter print stimulus texts. Varied, contemporary and unseen texts are used. Question formats such as short answer, multiple-choice, and/or true/false are used. Focus questions specify the language of response.
Section Three Writing One third of the written exam Suggested working time: 55 minutes Part A: Two stimuli One question from a choice of two Part B: Two focus tasks One question from a choice of two	Each part of the writing section has a different unit focus. Part A: Contains two stimuli options such as emails, letters, advertisements, photographs, graphs. Candidates choose one stimulus to respond to in German. Focus questions are in German and/or English. The recommended word count is approximately 100 words. Part B: Contains two focus tasks. Candidates choose one task. Focus questions are in German and/or English. Candidates write in German. The recommended word count is approximately 100 words.