

German

WACE written examination—2010 design brief

Stage 3

The German examination comprises a written examination that is 75% of the total examination score and an oral examination that is 25% of the total examination score.

Time allowed

Reading time before commencing work: ten minutes

Working time for paper: two hours and thirty minutes

Permissible items

Standard items: pens, pencils, eraser, correction fluid, highlighter

Special items: dictionaries: one combined dictionary (German/English and English/German dictionary) or two separate dictionaries (one English/German and one German/English dictionary). No electronic dictionaries are allowed.

Additional information

Dictionaries should not contain any notes or other marks and may be inspected during the examination. The examination is presented in a combined question/answer booklet.

| Section                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Supporting information                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Section OneListeningOne third of the written exam3–5 audio texts, 4–8 short answer questions with subparts, for each textWorking time: 40 minutes                                                                                                                | Section one contains a maximum of 3–5 audio texts. Candidates answer questions in German and/or English as specified in the question.Candidates hear the text twice.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Section TwoViewing and readingOne third of the written examSuggested working time: 55 minutesPart A: Vocabulary and structure1–5 questions with subpartsPart B: Reading3–6 print texts, 1–5 questions with subparts, for each text | In this section the parts are not equally weighted. Part A comprises no more than one quarter of the weighting of this section of the paper.Part A: Focuses on the form and features of language from the units studied. Question formats such as multiple-choice, sentence completion, cloze and/or scrambled sentences may be used.Part B: Contains between three longer and six shorter print stimulus texts. Varied contemporary and unseen texts are used. Question formats such as short answer, multiple-choice and/or true/false items are used. Focus questions specify the language of response. |
| Section ThreeWritingOne third of the written examSuggested working time: 55 minutesPart A: Two stimuliOne question from a choice of twoPart B: Two focus tasksOne question from a choice of two                                    | Each part of the writing section has a different unit focus.Part A: Contains two stimulus options such as emails, letters, advertisements, photographs, graphs. Candidates choose one stimulus to respond to in German. Focus questions are in German and/or English.The recommended word count is approximately 150 words.Part B: Contains two focus tasks which cover the foci of units studied. Candidates choose one question to respond to in German. Focus questions are written in German and/or English.The recommended word count is approximately 150 words.                             |