

DRAFT SAMPLE EXAMINATION MARKING KEY

SECTION ONE
Question 1 (a)

Visual analysis
- Identify and discuss key features of artwork, commenting on literal and/or symbolic meaning - Recognise how the artwork has been constructed, identifying specific art elements and principles - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork, discussing mood created - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork using the frames
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Detailed analysis of artwork that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis of artwork focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis of artwork restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.	Inadequate analysis of artwork with minimal use of art language.
Meaning and purpose
- Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced, discussing some key concepts communicated - Interpret the meanings communicated by the art work, commenting on stereotypes presented - Discuss the artwork, commenting on possible meanings conveyed
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork.	Straight forward and literal interpretation of artwork and its meaning.	Limited description of artwork.	Little or no attempt to discuss the meaning and purpose of artwork. Inadequate response.

Total marks /20

Additional notes for markers

	Visual analysis
For copyright reasons this image cannot be reproduced in the online version of this document, but can be viewed at http://www.art.net.au/art-detail.asp?idImage=2952&idArtist=1125	In analysing the image students may draw attention to any of the following: - The symmetrical organisation of figures within the composition - The use of colour to emphasise male and female groupings.
	Meaning and purpose In discussing stereotyping of men and women students may draw attention to any of the following: - differences between the colour of men and women's clothes - differences in body language of men and women - social behaviours and gender interactions - gender, racial and/or class stereotyping.

Question 1 (b)

Personal response
- Express personal opinions about the artwork - Support opinions with evidence from artwork.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Articulates own viewpoint and supports personal opinions with reference to specific features of artwork.	Provides reasons for personal conclusions about artwork based on subjective and objective evidence.	A few simple reasons offered to support opinions and personal conclusions about artwork.	Personal opinions about artwork stated but not supported with reasons or evidence.	Little or no attempt to respond to artwork. No conclusions formed.

Total marks /10

Additional notes for markers

	Personal response
For copyright reasons this image cannot be reproduced in the online version of this document, but can be viewed at http://www.art.net.au/art-detail.asp?idImage=2952&idArtist=1125	In discussing stereotyping of men and women students may draw attention to any of the following: - gender segregation and traditional roles - perhaps racial stereotyping is alluded to - class stereotypes - the title Diplomacy – often considered the domain of men rather than women

Question 2

Visual analysis - Identify and discuss key features of artwork - Recognise how the artwork have been constructed - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Detailed analysis of artwork that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis of artwork focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis of artwork restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.	Inadequate analysis of artwork with minimal use of art language.
Personal response - Express personal opinions about the artwork - Support opinions with evidence from artwork.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Articulates own viewpoint and supports personal opinions with reference to specific features of artwork.	Provides reasons for personal conclusions about artwork based on subjective and objective evidence.	A few simple reasons offered to support opinions and personal conclusions about artwork.	Personal opinions about artwork stated but not supported with reasons or evidence.	Little or no attempt to respond to artwork. No conclusions formed.
Meaning and purpose - Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced - Interpret the meanings communicated by the art work - Discuss alternative readings of artwork.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork.	Straight forward and literal interpretation of artwork and its meaning.	Limited description of artwork.	Little or no attempt to discuss the meaning and purpose of artwork. Inadequate response.

Total marks /30

Additional notes for markers

Image B 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the imaginary landscape made up of organic shapes and brilliant colours - reflects digital graphics, video games, cartoon and animation - the image has a fantasy element - low point of view creates a dramatic and imposing stature.
Image C 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - witty use of found objects assembled into a small sculptural human form - the work uses discarded objects and recycled materials to make comment on human consumption and/or excess - the sculpture has a technological and sci-fi appearance and could suggest our dependence and use of technologies in contemporary work and society.
Image D For copyright reasons this image cannot be reproduced in the online version of this document, but can be viewed at http://www.visualarts.net.au/gallery/images/2007/06/jack	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the central figure is a male dressed in maids clothing in a kitchen - the male in female clothing may suggest changing roles in society - the artwork may challenge the viewer's traditional concept of gender, domesticity and/or traditional family roles - the work may be interpreted as a humorous comment on the traditional role of men and women - the use of patchwork, appliqué and stitching is seen as a female domain.
Image E 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the work is a montage of photographs and images that have been collected and arranged to fill the entire picture space - the cluttered collection of images show images from different times and places and communicates a religious and spiritual theme - the door in the centre of the composition leads the viewer's eye toward greener pastures. This could represent a spiritual journey - the juxtaposed images may be questioning the role of spirituality and religion in today's society.
Image F For copyright reasons this image cannot be reproduced in the online version of this document, but may be viewed at http://www.abcgallery.com/G/grosz/grosz15.html	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the artwork depicts political figures seated around a table. Some of the figures are headless - the image is a condemnation of political and business leaders and their role in corruption, political instability and a creating war and harsh economic depression - the image contains a great deal of symbolism, for example the sun, a symbol of growth, regeneration and life, is eclipsed by a blood stained dollar sign - Grosz depicts differences between the working classes in society.
Image G 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the artwork is painted in the classical tradition and is evident through the realistic depiction and dramatic use of light and shadow. - a grotesque animal is perched on a dramatically reposed figure. - the animal in the darkness may be symbolic of our personal or inner demons. - the figure's proportion has been exaggerated to emphasise the drama of the nightmare scene.

SECTION THREE
Question 3 (a)

Visual analysis - Identify and discuss key features of artwork/s - Recognise how the artwork/s have been constructed - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork/s - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Detailed analysis of artwork/s that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork/s and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis of artwork/s focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis of artwork/s restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.	Inadequate analysis of artwork/s with minimal use of art language.
Meaning and purpose - Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced - Interpret the meanings communicated by the art work/s - Discuss alternative readings of artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork/s, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork/s.	Straight forward and literal interpretation of artwork and its meaning.	Limited description of artwork/s.	Little or no attempt to discuss the meaning and purpose of artwork/s. Inadequate response.
Social, cultural and historical contexts - Discuss the context of artist practice and gives examples of their work - Discuss social, cultural and historical influences on the work of selected artist/s - Identify the impact of artist/s on broader context of art practice, production and reading.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Extensive explanation of the context and critical discourse surrounding artist/s and their work.	Sufficiently detailed explanation of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Satisfactory explanation of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Limited explanation of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Insufficient information about the context surrounding artist/s and their work.

Total marks /30

Question 3 (b)

Personal response - Express personal opinions about the artwork/s - Support opinions with evidence from artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Articulates development of own art work and practice in a detailed and interrelated way. Significant formal and conceptual connections identified between case studies and development of own practice.	Provides reasons for choices made in the development of own art work and practice. Strong and clear connections made between case studies and development of own practice.	Gives a simple account of their own art practice and development of artwork. Illustrates some links between case studies and development of own practice.	Provides a brief or limited account of own artwork and practice. Simple or obvious links made between case studies and development of own practice.	Little or no attempt to describe own artwork and practice. Little or ineffective links made between case studies and development of own practice.

Total marks /10

Stage 2

Mapping questions to content

	Art Interpretation				Art Making
Question No.	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose	Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts
Section A – Critical Analysis
1	2A/2B	2A/2B	2A/2B
Section B – Image Analysis
2	2A/2B	2A/2B	2A/2B
Section C – Case Studies
3	2A/2B	2A/2B	2A/2B	2A/2B

Stage 2 Written Examination
Art Interpretation Unit Content Mapping
	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose
2A Unit Content	Question 1
	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames to analyse artworks from different points of view (subjective, structural, cultural, postmodern) - use visual arts language and terminology to comment on artworks and discuss their formal organisation.	- provide subjective and objective response to artworks giving reasons for opinions - support arguments and interpretations when responding to artworks.	- identifying multiple meanings, values and beliefs communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or messages in artworks.
2B Unit Content	- consolidate the use of critical analysis frameworks including the Frames to analyse artworks from different points of view (subjective, structural, cultural, postmodern) - respond to unfamiliar works which challenge expectations and preconceived ideas (unseen image analysis)	- support interpretations, opinions and beliefs about artworks and their meanings - consider alternative viewpoints and opinions when responding to artworks.	- discuss the meaning of artworks from different times and places making links to contextual factors that influence production and reading - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings and messages of an artwork.

	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose
2A Unit Content	Question 2
	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames to analyse artworks from different points of view (subjective, structural, cultural, postmodern) - use visual art language and terminology to comment on artworks and discuss their formal organisation.	- provide subjective and objective response to artworks giving reasons for opinions - support arguments and interpretations when responding to artworks.	- identifying multiple meanings, values and beliefs communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or messages in artworks.
	2B Unit Content	- consolidate the use of critical analysis frameworks including the Frames to analyse artworks from different points of view (subjective, structural, cultural, postmodern) - respond to unfamiliar works which challenge expectations and preconceived ideas (unseen image analysis)	- support interpretations, opinions and beliefs about artworks and their meanings - consider alternative viewpoints and opinions when responding to artworks.	- discuss the meaning of artworks from different times and places making links to contextual factors that influence production and reading - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings and messages of an artwork.
	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose	Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts
2A Unit Content	Question 3
	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames to analyse artworks from different points of view (subjective, structural, cultural, postmodern) - compare and contrast subject matter, meaning and approaches between artworks - use visual art language and terminology to comment on artworks and discuss their formal organisation.	- provide subjective and objective response to artworks giving reasons for opinions - support arguments and interpretations when responding to artworks.	- identifying multiple meanings, values and beliefs communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or messages in artworks.	identify historical, social, political and religious and other contextual factors that have shaped the development and production of artworks or movements different times and places.

2B Unit Content	- consolidate the use of critical analysis frameworks including the Frames to analyse artworks from different points of view (subjective, structural, cultural, postmodern) - respond to unfamiliar works which challenge expectations and preconceived ideas (unseen image analysis) - compare artworks using visual art language and terminology discussing formal organisation, meanings and artistic style.	- support interpretations, opinions and beliefs about artworks and their meanings - consider alternative viewpoints and opinions when responding to artworks.	- discuss the meaning of artworks from different times and places making links to contextual factors that influence production and reading - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings and messages of an artwork.	- examine a range of social, cultural, historical and contextual factors that have influenced or impacted the development and production of artists, groups or movements over time - examine specific artworks that have been shaped or influenced by specific social, cultural or historical concerns.
-----------------	---	--	--	--