

DRAFT SAMPLE EXAMINATION MARKING KEY

DRAFT

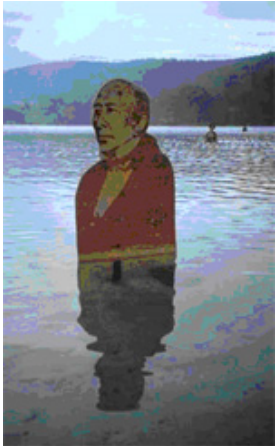

SECTION ONE

Question 1

Visual Analysis - Identify and discuss key features of artwork/s - Recognise how the artwork/s have been constructed - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork/s - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Comprehensive analysis that synthesises aesthetic, theoretical and contextual interpretation and reading of artwork/s, demonstrating fluent control of art language.	Detailed analysis that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.
Personal Response - Express personal opinions about the artwork/s - Support opinions with evidence from artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Use evidence to justify own viewpoint and personal opinions that take into account alternative readings and interpretations of artwork/s.	Articulates own viewpoint and supports personal opinions with reference to specific features of artwork/s.	Provides reasons for personal conclusions about artwork/s based on subjective and objective evidence.	A few simple reasons offered to support opinions and personal conclusions about artwork/s.	Personal opinions about artwork/s stated but not supported with reasons or evidence.
Meaning and Purpose - Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced - Interpret the meanings communicated by the art work/s - Discuss alternative readings of artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Debate concepts, meaning, purpose and values of artwork/s offering a complex, engaging and insightful reading and interpretation.	Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork/s, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork/s.	Literal interpretation of artwork/s and their meaning.	Limited description of artwork/s.

Total marks /30

Additional notes for markers

	Visual analysis
For copyright reasons this image cannot be reproduced in the online version of this document.	In analysing the image students may draw attention to any of the following: - the wrapped trees could symbolise suffocation, or on the other hand, protection from elements of rain, sun or pollution - the fabric has a translucent appearance provides a see through skin covering. Underneath the branches appear like veins - the wrapped trees create a large volume of surface forms, forming a group and sense of connectedness through their close proximity
	- Whispering Sands refers to the history of the land, its ancestors and the impact of colonists who arrived on Australian shores. - the installation communicates a ghostly mood reflecting past events, interactions and histories - the images protruding from the water create a sense of something lurking beneath, perhaps lost or forgotten memories - in the distance you see other figures in the water - distance creates a sense of days and times by gone.
	Personal Response In analysing the image students may draw attention to any of the following: - the images highlight the impact humans have on their environment, raising issues from the past, of the present and concerns for the future. - working in public, outdoor spaces challenges the traditional notions of the art object and role of galleries in displaying works. - these images are temporary and are affected by environmental conditions, weather and changing tides which may affect the reading of the work.
	Meaning and purpose In discussing the social, political, environmental and aesthetic concerns students may draw attention to any of the following: - the impact humans have on the environment and its finite resources - the political use and ownership of land - connections to the land and different way it is used and valued by our society and cultures - nature as an aesthetic source of inspiration

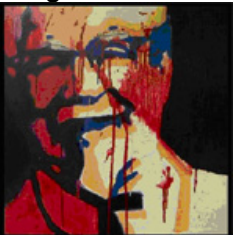

SECTION TWO

Question 2

Visual Analysis - Identify and discuss key features of artwork - Recognise how the artwork/s have been constructed - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Comprehensive analysis that synthesises aesthetic, theoretical and contextual interpretation and reading of artwork, demonstrating fluent control of art language.	Detailed analysis that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.
Personal Response - Express personal opinions about the artwork - Support opinions with evidence from artwork.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Use evidence to justify own viewpoint and personal opinions that take into account alternative readings and interpretations of artwork.	Articulates own viewpoint and supports personal opinions with reference to specific features of artwork.	Provides reasons for personal conclusions about artwork based on subjective and objective evidence.	A few simple reasons offered to support opinions and personal conclusions about artwork.	Personal opinions about artwork stated but not supported with reasons or evidence.
Meaning and Purpose - Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced - Interpret the meanings communicated by the art work - Discuss alternative readings of artwork.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Debate concepts, meaning, purpose and values of artwork offering a complex, engaging and insightful reading and interpretation.	Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork.	Literal interpretation of artwork and its meaning.	Limited description of artwork.

Total marks /30

Additional notes for markers

Image C 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the work depicts the iconic image of Colonel Sanders of the popular fast food, fried chicken outlets Kentucky Fried Chicken. - the symbolic use of red and blood stained face is suggestive of chicken slaughtering underpinning this fast food business - the work challenging the viewer to consider take away as more than just food, but how it was produced - animal rights movements use art as a vehicle for raising social and moral consciousness.
Image D 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the image depicts characters voyaging through the seas on a ship - the voyagers are engaged in their own folly - the characters may represent humanity with self indulgent habits and desires depicted (eating, drinking and singing and playing silly games) - the crowded ship drifts with, as the title suggests, a crew of fools - A tree forms the mast of the ship. - In the tree's branches a skull is perched, perhaps symbolising death.
Image E 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the work is made from a shopping trolley and assembled with assorted plastics, ice, plastic cups and other signage - the work can be wheeled around allowing it to be displayed in a range of places. It was first wheeled in to the Fremantle passenger terminal coinciding with the Perth Art Fair, 2003 - the work challenges the idea of the art object by using common materials - the artist provided an explanation of the work as it being "a tactical and relational protest against the commercial nature of art fairs and the expectations of contemporary art audiences" - viewers and audiences are encouraged to engage with the work by physically serving themselves alcohol - the artist further commented on the work "by getting the public to 'self serve', not only do people physically engage with the work, but no alcohol prohibition laws are being broken as it becomes the responsibility of the participant."
Image F 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the work presents a scene of war and destruction - the figure in the foreground covers their eyes in emotional despair as the chaos of destruction plays out behind them - the work creates a tension between opposing elements of chaos and order, creation and destruction - the work raises ideas about coexistence in contemporary society - The letters bang create a heightened sense of sound and atmosphere.
Image G 	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the artwork is a bronze sculpture depicting young men - the monument pays tribute to the sacrifices made by these young men - they are presented not as heroic but rather appear defeated and worn - the sculpture is not raised but rather has been presented at ground level on a slightly raised pedestal, encouraging the viewer to connect with the human emotion and qualities communicated in the work - the grouped figures communicate feelings of pain, hesitation and sense of camaraderie.
Image H For copyright reasons this image cannot be reproduced in the online version of this document, but may be viewed at http://www.visualarts.net.au/gallery/images/2007/03/mum	In analysing the artwork students may draw attention to the following: - the artwork communicates ideas about Aboriginal people and environmental issues and native title rights - the mixed media work uses fabric collage in its construction - bold red yellow and black colours communicate strong sense of identity and pride in cultural background and history - the silhouette arms reach out to a yellow heart as the central focus of the body - stars form a halo around the head suggesting a strong spirituality and connection to self and the land.

SECTION THREE

Question 3

Visual Analysis - Identify and discuss key features of artwork/s - Recognise how the artwork/s have been constructed - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork/s - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Comprehensive analysis that synthesises aesthetic, theoretical and contextual interpretation and reading of artwork/s, demonstrating fluent control of art language.	Detailed analysis that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.
Personal Response - Express personal opinions about the artwork/s - Support opinions with evidence from artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Use evidence to justify own viewpoint and personal opinions that take into account alternative readings and interpretations of artwork/s.	Articulates own viewpoint and supports personal opinions with reference to specific features of artwork/s.	Provides reasons for personal conclusions about artwork/s based on subjective and objective evidence.	A few simple reasons offered to support opinions and personal conclusions about artwork/s.	Personal opinions about artwork/s stated but not supported with reasons or evidence.
Meaning and Purpose - Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced - Interpret the meanings communicated by the art work/s - Discuss alternative readings of artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Debate concepts, meaning, purpose and values of artwork/s offering a complex, engaging and insightful reading and interpretation.	Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork/s, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork/s.	Literal interpretation of artwork/s and their meaning.	Limited description of artwork/s.
Social, cultural and historical contexts - Discuss the context of artist practice and gives examples of their work - Discuss social, cultural and historical influences on the work of selected artist/s - Identify the impact of artist/s on broader context of art practice, production and reading.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Articulates a complex and in-depth understanding of the critical discourse surrounding artists and their work.	Extensive understanding of the context and critical discourse surrounding artist/s and their work.	Sufficiently detailed understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Satisfactory understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Limited understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.
Inextricable connections between aesthetic and theoretical aspects of case studies and development of own practice evident.	Significant formal and conceptual connections identified between case studies and development of own practice.	Strong and clear connections made between case studies and development of own practice.	Illustrates some links between case studies and development of own practice.	Simple or obvious links made between case studies and development of own practice.

Total marks /40

Stage 3

Mapping questions to content

	Art Interpretation
Question No.	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose	Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts
Section A—Critical Analysis
1	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B
Section B—Image Analysis
2	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B
Section C—Case Studies
3	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B

	Stage 3 Written Examination Art Interpretation Unit Content Mapping
	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose
	Question 1
3A Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical and theoretical investigations to make comment on artworks - analyse and respond to unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms and styles - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- support and justify opinions by offering a range of interpretations to artworks - provide alternative points of view when responding to artwork.	- analyse social, religious, political and cultural commentary of artworks from different times and places - identify alternative perspectives and meaning communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artworks.
3B Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical research and art theory to undertake in-depth contextual or cross-cultural investigations - analyse and compare unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms, styles, times and places - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- explore issues that shape critical response and discuss contextual factors that affect meaning and interpretation - use theory and research to support personal responses and different points of view.	- examine the relationship between audience, artwork and meaning using theory, art history and research - examine artworks that challenge attitudes, beliefs, values and ideologies - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artwork.

	Stage 3 Written Examination
	Art Interpretation Unit Content Mapping
	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose
	Question 2
3A Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical and theoretical investigations to make comment on artworks - analyse and respond to unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms and styles - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- support and justify opinions by offering a range of interpretations to artworks - provide alternative points of view when responding to artwork.	- analyse social, religious, political and cultural commentary of artworks from different times and places - identify alternative perspectives and meaning communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artworks.
3B Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical research and art theory to undertake in-depth contextual or cross-cultural investigations - analyse and compare unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms, styles, times and places - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- explore issues that shape critical response and discuss contextual factors that affect meaning and interpretation - use theory and research to support personal responses and different points of view.	- examine the relationship between audience, artwork and meaning using theory, art history and research - examine artworks that challenge attitudes, beliefs, values and ideologies - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artwork.

3A Unit Content	Stage 3 Written Examination Art Interpretation Unit Content Mapping
	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose	Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts
	Question 3
	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical and theoretical investigations to make comment on artworks - analyse and respond to unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms and styles - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- support and justify opinions by offering a range of interpretations to artworks - provide alternative points of view when responding to artwork.	- analyse social, religious, political and cultural commentary of artworks from different times and places - identify alternative perspectives and meaning communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artworks.	- in-depth examination and research of artists, groups, movements or cultures contextualising their practice within particular social, cultural or historical contexts - undertake investigations and present case studies making links between art practices from different times and places - compare artworks that have been shaped or influenced by specific social, cultural or historical concerns.
3B Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical research and art theory to undertake in-depth contextual or cross-cultural investigations - analyse and compare unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms, styles, times and places - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- explore issues that shape critical response and discuss contextual factors that affect meaning and interpretation - use theory and research to support personal responses and different points of view.	- examine the relationship between audience, artwork and meaning using theory, art history and research - examine artworks that challenge attitudes, beliefs, values and ideologies - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artwork.	- research social, cultural, historical and other contextual factors influencing art practice using art theory, criticism and specific examples - undertake investigations and present case studies firmly locating the production and reception of selected artists, movements or groups in their social, cultural and historical contexts.