

MARKING KEY

DRAFT

SECTION ONE

Question 1

Visual Analysis - Identify and discuss key features of artwork/s - Recognise how the artwork/s have been constructed - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork/s - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Comprehensive analysis that synthesises aesthetic, theoretical and contextual interpretation and reading of artwork/s, demonstrating fluent control of art language.	Detailed analysis that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.
Personal Response - Express personal opinions about the artwork/s - Support opinions with evidence from artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Use evidence to justify own viewpoint and personal opinions that take into account alternative readings and interpretations of artwork/s.	Articulate own viewpoint and support personal opinions with reference to specific features of artwork/s.	Provides reasons for personal conclusions based on subjective and objective evidence.	Few reasons offered to support opinions and personal conclusions.	Personal opinions stated but not supported with reasons.
Meaning and Purpose - Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced - Interpret the meaning/s communicated by the art work/s - Discuss alternative readings of artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Debate concepts, meaning, purpose and values of artwork/s offering a complex, engaging and insightful reading and interpretation.	Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork/s, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork/s.	Literal interpretation of artworks/s and their meaning.	Limited description of artwork provided.
Social, cultural and historical contexts - Discuss the context of artist practice and gives examples of their work - Discuss the social, cultural and historical influences on the work of selected artists - Identify the impact of artists on broader context of art practice, production and reading.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Articulates a complex and in-depth understanding of the critical discourse surrounding artists and their work.	Extensive understanding of the context and critical discourse surrounding artists and their work.	Sufficiently detailed understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Satisfactory understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Limited understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.

Total marks /40

SECTION TWO

Question 2

Visual Analysis - Identify and discuss key features of artwork/s - Recognise how the artwork/s have been constructed - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork/s - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork/s.
5	4	3	2	1
Comprehensive analysis that synthesises aesthetic, theoretical and contextual interpretation and reading of artwork/s, demonstrating fluent control of art language.	Detailed analysis that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.
Personal Response - Express personal opinions about the artwork/s - Support opinions with evidence from artwork/s.
5	4	3	2	1
Use evidence to justify own viewpoint and personal opinions that take into account alternative readings and interpretations of artwork/s.	Articulate own viewpoint and support personal opinions with reference to specific features of artwork/s.	Provides reasons for personal conclusions based on subjective and objective evidence.	Few reasons offered to support opinions and personal conclusions.	Personal opinions stated but not supported with reasons.
Meaning and Purpose - Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced - Interpret the meaning/s communicated by the art work/s - Discuss alternative readings of artwork/s.
5	4	3	2	1
Debate concepts, meaning, purpose and values of artwork/s offering a complex, engaging and insightful reading and interpretation.	Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork/s, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork/s.	Literal interpretation of artworks/s and their meaning.	Limited description of artwork provided.
Social, cultural and historical contexts - Discuss the context of artist practice and gives examples of their work - Discuss the social, cultural and historical influences on the work of selected artists - Identify the impact of artists on broader context of art practice, production and reading.
5	4	3	2	1
Articulates a complex and in-depth understanding of the critical discourse surrounding artists and their work.	Extensive understanding of the context and critical discourse surrounding artists and their work.	Sufficiently detailed understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Satisfactory understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.	Limited understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work.

Total marks /20

SECTION THREE

Question 3

Visual Analysis - Identify and discuss key features of artwork/s - Recognise how the artwork/s have been constructed - Discuss materials, techniques and processes used in artwork/s - Interpret and make judgements about the artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Comprehensive analysis that synthesises aesthetic, theoretical and contextual interpretation and reading of artwork/s, demonstrating fluent control of art language.	Detailed analysis that explains both the aesthetic qualities and conceptual meanings communicated with selective use of art language.	Objective analysis of artwork and identification of key meanings communicated, using appropriate art language.	Basic analysis focused mainly on the formal aspects and/or key features, using a limited range of art language.	Analysis restricted to being largely descriptive and/or emotive with limited use of art language.
Personal Response - Express personal opinions about the artwork/s - Support opinions with evidence from artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Use evidence to justify own viewpoint and personal opinions that take into account alternative readings and interpretations of artwork/s.	Articulate own viewpoint and support personal opinions with reference to specific features of artwork/s.	Provides reasons for personal conclusions based on subjective and objective evidence.	Few reasons offered to support opinions and personal conclusions.	Personal opinions stated but not supported with reasons.
Meaning and Purpose - Offer reasons for why the artwork was produced - Interpret the meaning/s communicated by the art work/s - Discuss alternative readings of artwork/s.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Debate concepts, meaning, purpose and values of artwork/s offering a complex, engaging and insightful reading and interpretation.	Informed and thorough discussion of concepts, meaning, purpose and value of artwork/s, synthesising varied or conflicting interpretations.	Comprehensive interpretation of meanings communicated in artwork/s.	Literal interpretation of artworks/s and their meaning.	Limited description of artwork provided.
Social, cultural and historical contexts - Discuss the context of artist practice and gives examples of their work - Discuss the social, cultural and historical influences on the work of selected artists - Identify the impact of artists on broader context of art practice, production and reading.
10–9	8–7	6–5	4–3	2–1
Articulates a complex and in-depth understanding of the critical discourse surrounding artists and their work. Inextricable connections between aesthetic and theoretical aspects of case studies and development of own practice evident.	Extensive understanding of the context and critical discourse surrounding artists and their work. Significant formal and conceptual connections and influences made between case studies and development of own practice.	Sufficiently detailed understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work. Strong connections made between case studies and development of own practice.	Satisfactory understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work. Clearly illustrates the links between case studies and development of own practice.	Limited understanding of the context surrounding artist/s and their work. Simple or obvious links made between case studies and development of own practice.

Total marks /40

Stage 3 Mapping questions to content

	Art Interpretation
Question No.	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose	Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts
Section A—Critical Analysis
1	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B
Section B—Image Analysis
2	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B
Section C—Case Studies
3	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B	3A/3B

	Stage 3 Written Examination Art Interpretation Unit Content Mapping
	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose	Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts
	Question 1
3A Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical and theoretical investigations to make comment on artworks - analyse and respond to unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms and styles - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- support and justify opinions by offering a range of interpretations to artworks - provide alternative points of view when responding to artwork.	- analyse social, religious, political and cultural commentary of artworks from different times and places - identify alternative perspectives and meaning communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artworks.	- in-depth examination and research of artists, groups, movements or cultures contextualising their practice within particular social, cultural or historical contexts - undertake investigations and present case studies making links between art practices from different times and places - compare artworks that have been shaped or influenced by specific social, cultural or historical concerns.
3B Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical research and art theory to undertake in-depth contextual or cross-cultural investigations - analyse and compare unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms, styles, times and places - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- explore issues that shape critical response and discuss contextual factors that affect meaning and interpretation - use theory and research to support personal responses and different points of view.	- examine the relationship between audience, artwork and meaning using theory, art history and research - examine artworks that challenge attitudes, beliefs, values and ideologies - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artwork.	- research social, cultural, historical and other contextual factors influencing art practice using art theory, criticism and specific examples - undertake investigations and present case studies firmly locating the production and reception of selected artists, movements or groups in their social, cultural and historical contexts.

	Stage 3 Written Examination
	Art Interpretation Unit Content Mapping
	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose	Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts
	Question 2
2A Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical and theoretical investigations to make comment on artworks - analyse and respond to unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms and styles - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- support and justify opinions by offering a range of interpretations to artworks - provide alternative points of view when responding to artwork.	- analyse social, religious, political and cultural commentary of artworks from different times and places - identify alternative perspectives and meaning communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artworks.	- in-depth examination and research of artists, groups, movements or cultures contextualising their practice within particular social, cultural or historical contexts - undertake investigations and present case studies making links between art practices from different times and places - compare artworks that have been shaped or influenced by specific social, cultural or historical concerns.
2B Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical research and art theory to undertake in-depth contextual or cross-cultural investigations - analyse and compare unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms, styles, times and places - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- explore issues that shape critical response and discuss contextual factors that affect meaning and interpretation - use theory and research to support personal responses and different points of view.	- examine the relationship between audience, artwork and meaning using theory, art history and research - examine artworks that challenge attitudes, beliefs, values and ideologies - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artwork.	- research social, cultural, historical and other contextual factors influencing art practice using art theory, criticism and specific examples - undertake investigations and present case studies firmly locating the production and reception of selected artists, movements or groups in their social, cultural and historical contexts.

	Stage 3 Written Examination
	Art Interpretation Unit Content Mapping
	Visual Analysis	Personal Response	Meaning and Purpose	Social, Cultural and Historical Contexts
2A Unit Content	Question 3
	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical and theoretical investigations to make comment on artworks - analyse and respond to unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms and styles - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- support and justify opinions by offering a range of interpretations to artworks - provide alternative points of view when responding to artwork.	- analyse social, religious, political and cultural commentary of artworks from different times and places - identify alternative perspectives and meaning communicated in artworks - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artworks.	- in-depth examination and research of artists, groups, movements or cultures contextualising their practice within particular social, cultural or historical contexts - undertake investigations and present case studies making links between art practices from different times and places - compare artworks that have been shaped or influenced by specific social, cultural or historical concerns.
2B Unit Content	- use critical analysis frameworks including the Frames (subjective, structural, cultural and postmodern), historical research and art theory to undertake in-depth contextual or cross-cultural investigations - analyse and compare unfamiliar artworks representative of a range of art forms, styles, times and places - consider visual language and conventions which influence production and response - make comparisons and connections between artworks using visual art language and vocabulary discussing formal organisation and meanings and artistic style.	- explore issues that shape critical response and discuss contextual factors that affect meaning and interpretation - use theory and research to support personal responses and different points of view.	- examine the relationship between audience, artwork and meaning using theory, art history and research - examine artworks that challenge attitudes, beliefs, values and ideologies - identify formal, stylistic and technical elements which contribute to the function or meanings in artwork.	- research social, cultural, historical and other contextual factors influencing art practice using art theory, criticism and specific examples - undertake investigations and present case studies firmly locating the production and reception of selected artists, movements or groups in their social, cultural and historical contexts.