

Year 11 Ancient History - General
Unit 2 - Power in the Ancient World

Elective - Alexander the Great, Macedonia 356-323BCE & Julius Caesar, Rome 100-44BCE

Student Name: _____

Teacher's Name: Miss Barrie

MARKS

10a: _____/30 marks

10b: _____/15 marks

TOTAL: _____/45 marks

_____ %

Assessment Task 10 – Unit 2

Assessment Type: Historical Inquiry

Throughout Week 11 - 15 of Unit 2, students will be required to research a key individuals that has acted as an agent of change, interacting with groups and institutions, and using their power to shape their society.

There are two (2) components to be submitted:

Task 10a (20% weighting):

Research

Task 10b (10% weighting):

Presentation of Inquiry Findings

STUDENT AGREEMENT

I understand that if any components of this assessment are incomplete, I jeopardise the potential to gain marks. I take full responsibility for incomplete work and am aware that my parents/guardians will be contacted if I receive less than 50% for this task.

Signed: _____

Date: _____

Part 10a: Research/investigation of a key individual (20%)

Select an key individual from the list below:

- ☐ Alexander the Great
- ☐ Julius Caesar

Your investigation should include as many of the following points and you should consider the use of sources, both modern and ancient to help form your assessment of power in the ancient world of your key individual.

This part of the Historical Inquiry will require you to note take from various sources.

Remember to use correct note-taking procedures and you will also be required to include a bibliography.

1. Selected individual

- The background of the selected individual, including:
 - ➡ Family background
 - ➡ Key events in their lives
 - ➡ Significant early influences
- The career of the selected individual, including:
 - ➡ Change of role or status over time
 - ➡ Possible motivations for actions
 - ➡ Methods used to achieve aims
 - ➡ Relationships with other individuals, groups, structures/institutions; for example, military or religious
 - ➡ Significant events in their career
 - ➡ Ways they shaped and/or changed their society
- The manner and impact of their death
- Challenges presented by other individuals, groups and structures/institutions
- Motivation and actions of the other individuals, groups and structures/institutions, seeking to influence structures of power within the society
- The legacy of the selected individual, including:
 - ➡ assessment of their life and career
 - ➡ the ways they shaped and/or changed their society
 - ➡ their longer-term impact and legacy

2. Representations of the key individual - SOURCES!

- The Depictions of the individual during their lifetime – How did others view them or any images (paintings, mosaics, statues) of them
- Interpretations of the individual after their death – Accounts from people (historians) discussing their impact

3. Selected individual's effect on continuity and change

- Indicators of continuity and change in the period
- How and why aspects of society change while other aspects remain unchanged

Part 10b: Presentation (10%)

Develop a presentation that outlines your findings about your chosen individual to the class. The presentation can include a PowerPoint or Keynote.

The presentation needs to:

- Provide clear and accurate information
- Identify key aspects from Part A in relation to the individual you have studied
- Include a range of evidence from various sources
- Be delivered in a clear and organised way, using historical terminology and appropriate language

Include your conclusions regarding the life and power your chosen individual had in the ancient world.

SLIDE ORGANISATION EXAMPLE

1. Title Slide: Name, class, teacher, and selected topic
2. Background
3. Career
4. Manner and Impact of Death
5. Challenges
6. Motivations/Actions
7. Legacy
8. Representations - during and after lifetime
9. Sources/References

Research

Bibliography

Presentation

Final Submission

INQUIRY PROCESS
#	Element:	Requirements	✓
1	Focus Questions	• Create Focus Questions to guide your research • Must use a variety of question types • Must be relevant to areas of the inquiry
2	Sources/References	• Select a range of relevant sources that provide clear and accurate information and evidence about life in the ancient civilisation or culture • Select sources that show a variety of perspectives • Record ALL references in your notes (FULL URL)
3	Notes	• Make notes that address the focus questions and are relevant to the inquiry • Must be limited to dot-points/paraphrasing • Must use a note-taking framework/structure • Must use headings and subheadings
4	Conclusions	• Draft conclusions based on inquiry findings about the different life-styles of people in the ancient civilisation or culture, as determined by their individual wealth and power
5	Harvard Bibliography	• Use Harvard Referencing Guide Provided to type up all references used (including books, evidence, and websites) • Must be alphabetically ordered • Type it up! • Submit it on Connect to be printed
6	Presentation Planning	• Organise your research into categories/topics • Plan your slides
7	Presentation Creation	• Create your presentation • Check/Edit for Spelling, Grammar, and historical terminology • Submit on Connect - Ensure your name is on this document
8	FINAL SUBMISSION CHECK	1. Research book - Handed to teacher 2. Bibliography - Connect 3. Presentation - Connect

MARKING KEY

Part 10a: Research/investigation of a key individual

Description	Marks
Focus Questions
Devises a range of relevant questions which clearly identify the key areas of the inquiry	4
Devises a set of simple questions which identify the key areas of the inquiry	3
Creates a few questions which identify some key areas of the inquiry	2
Lists a few questions which may or may not identify key areas of the inquiry	1
No attempt at creating focus questions	0
Subtotal:	/4
Selection of sources
Selects a range of relevant sources that provide clear and accurate information and evidence about the selected individual Selects sources that show a variety of perspectives	5 - 6
Selects a few sources that provide some information and evidence about the selected individual Selects sources that show some differences in perspectives	3 - 4
Source/s provides limited information about the selected individual	1 - 2
No relevant sources used	0
Subtotal:	/6
Inquiry Notes
Notes clearly and effectively address the focus questions/key areas of the inquiry Presents notes using a clear structure (e.g. using an appropriate note-taking structure/framework) Notes effectively utilise headings/subheadings Notes use dot-points only	4
Notes address the focus questions/key areas of the inquiry Presents notes using a structure (e.g. using a note-taking structure/framework) Notes utilise headings/subheadings Notes use mostly dot-points	3
Notes contain some links to the focus questions/key areas of the inquiry Presents notes using some order/structure Some use of headings/subheadings Some use of dot-points	2

Notes contain limited links to the focus questions/key areas of the inquiry Presents notes in a limited order/structure Limited use of headings/subheadings Limited use of dot-points	1
Notes do not address/link to the focus questions	0
Subtotal:	/4
Makes notes that are relevant to the key areas of the inquiry about the selected individual, including: • Background of the selected individual • Career • Challenges • motivations/actions • Legacy • Representations	5 - 6
Makes notes that relate to some areas of the inquiry	3 - 4
Makes notes that relate to one/limited areas of the inquiry	1 - 2
Notes do not address/link to the key area/s of inquiry	0
Subtotal:	/6
Drafting conclusions
	5
Drafts conclusions based on inquiry findings about the selected individual and power during their ancient civilisation Uses examples and evidence to support the conclusions	3 - 4
Attempts to draft some conclusions about the selected individual and power during their ancient civilisation Uses limited examples which may support the conclusions	1 - 2
No attempt at drafting conclusions	0
Subtotal:	/5
Bibliography
Correctly and accurately formatted according to school protocols Sources are listed in alphabetical order	5
Formatted mostly according to school protocols Sources are listed in some order	4
Attempts to format according to school protocols Sources are listed in no particular order	3
Limited attempt in formatting according to school protocols Lists sources used	2
Lists sources used with no attempt to format according to school protocols	1

No sources listed	0
Subtotal:	/5
TOTAL PART A	/30

Part 10b: Presentation

Description	Marks
Presentation of Research
Presents clear and accurate information about all aspects of research, including: • Background of the selected individual • Career • Challenges • Motivations/actions • Legacy • Representations Presents justified conclusions regarding how selected key individual has acted as an agent for change, using their power to shape their society. Provides detailed and accurate examples and evidence to support the conclusions	7 - 8
Presents clear information about most aspects of research, including: • Background of the selected individual • Career • Challenges • Motivations/actions • Legacy • Representations Presents conclusions regarding how selected key individual has acted as an agent for change, using their power to shape their society. Provides accurate examples and evidence to support the conclusions	5 - 6
Presents information about some aspects of research, including: • Background of the selected individual • Career • Challenges • Motivations/actions • Legacy • Representations Presents some conclusions regarding how selected key individual has acted as an agent for change, using their power to shape their society. Provides some examples and evidence to support the conclusions	3 - 4
Presents limited information about aspects of research, including: • Background of the selected individual • Career • Challenges • Motivations/actions • Legacy • Representations Presents limited conclusions regarding how selected key individual has acted as an agent for change, using their power to shape their society. Provides limited examples and evidence to support the conclusions	1 - 2
Presentation of work incomplete	0

Subtotal:	/8
Evidence/Sources
Refers to a range of evidence from the sources	3
Refers to several pieces of evidence from the sources	2
Refers to minimal evidence from the sources	1
No relevant sources or evidence used	0
Subtotal:	/3
Expression of information - Historical Content/Terminology
Accurately uses historical terms and concepts in appropriate contexts to demonstrate historical knowledge and understanding	2
Some accurate use of historical terms and concepts to demonstrate historical knowledge and understanding	1
Information not expressed clearly	0
Subtotal:	/2
Expression of information - Spelling and Grammar
Expresses information clearly and in an organised way, using correct spelling and grammar	2
Expresses information briefly and in a way that may be difficult to follow, but makes some errors in spelling and/or grammar	1
Information not expressed clearly	0
Subtotal:	/2
TOTAL PART B	/15

TOTAL: /45

Feedback:
