

Year 11 Ancient History - General
Unit 1 - Ancient Civilisations
Elective - Late Bronze Age Greece and Troy c.1500-1050BCE

Student Name: _____

TOTAL: /43 marks %
Teacher's Name: Miss Barrie

Assessment Task 5 – Unit 1
Assessment Type: Historical Inquiry

TASK: Throughout Week 1 - 4 of Term 2, students will be required to research an Ancient Civilisation and create a presentation of their findings.

There are two (2) components to be submitted:

Task 5a:

Investigation of an ancient civilisation or culture from proscribed list (20%)

Task 5b:

Presentation of Inquiry Findings (10%)

STUDENT AGREEMENT

I understand that if any components of this assessment are incomplete, I jeopardise the potential to gain marks. I take full responsibility for incomplete work and am aware that my parents/guardians will be contacted if I receive less than 50% for this task.

Signed: _____

Date: _____

Part 5a:

Investigation of an ancient civilisation or culture from proscribed list (20%)

Select an Ancient Civilisation from the list below:

- Ancient Australia and the First peoples
- Vinca civilisation (Old Europe) c. 5500 –c.4500 BCE
- Mesopotamian societies (Sumer, Assyria and/or Babylonian) c. 2600-c. 600BCE
- The Celts c. 800BCE – 43CE
- The Qin and Han Dynasties in China 221 BCE – 220 CE
- Pompeii and Herculaneum and the Roman world 80 BCE – 79CE
- Roman Britain 55BCE – 410 CE
- The Vikings of the Early Medieval period c. 790CE –c. 1050CE

For your chosen Ancient Civilisation, investigate/research key information about the following topics:

1. Social structures
2. Political and legal structures
3. Economic activities
4. Religious - Values, beliefs and traditions
5. Military structures
6. Cultural features, such as art, music and architecture

Research Checklist
#	Element:	Requirements	✓
1	Focus Questions	• Create 3 Focus Questions per topic (SPERMC) • Total of 18 Questions • Must use a variety of literal, inferential, and evaluative question types • Must be relevant to areas of the inquiry
2	Sources/References	• Select a range of relevant sources that provide clear and accurate information and evidence about life in the ancient civilisation or culture • Select sources that show a variety of perspectives • Record ALL references in your notes (FULL URL)
3	Notes	• Make notes that address the focus questions and are relevant to the inquiry • Must be limited to dot-points/paraphrasing • Must use a note-taking framework/structure • Must use headings and subheadings
4	Conclusions	• Draft conclusions based on inquiry findings about the different life-styles of people in the ancient civilisation or culture, as determined by their individual wealth and power
5	Annotated Harvard Bibliography	• Use Harvard Referencing Guide Provided to type up all references used (including books, evidence, and websites) • Must be alphabetically ordered • Must include annotations

Part 5b: Presentation of Inquiry Findings (10%)

You will be required to create an elink presentation based on your inquiry findings. You must select evidence/sources from your Ancient Civilisation that give insight/can teach us about the different topics you have researched (SPERMC).

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Go to: <https://elink.io/>
2. Click 'Sign Up'
3. Enter your details using an email address and password that you will remember
4. Click the 'BASIC' (free) package
5. Follow prompts/steps on how to create an link
6. Select a template
7. Begin finding evidence/sources

Follow the tutorial at:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5M2Dz9Hx5A8>

The elink presentation needs to:

- Provide clear and accurate information
- Identify key aspects of the social, political, legal, military, economic, religious and cultural features of the civilisation
- Include evidence from the sources you have used
- Be delivered in a clear and organised way, using historical terminology and appropriate language.
- Include conclusions regarding the different lifestyles of people in the civilisation or society, as determined by their individual wealth and power.

Presentation Checklist
#	Topic	Requirements	✓
1	Social	I have found AT LEAST ONE piece of evidence/source from the Ancient Civilisation that relates to this topic/part of society.
2	Political
3	Economic	This evidence/source provides insight into the society, and teaches us about the different lifestyles of people in the civilisation.
4	Religious
5	Military	I have referenced this source in the bibliography, and ensured the link works effectively on my elink site.
6	Cultural

MARKING KEY

Part 5a:

Investigation of an ancient civilisation or culture from proscribed list

Description	Marks
Focus Questions
Devises a set of questions which clearly identifies the key areas of the inquiry (at least 6)	3
Devises a set of simple questions which identifies a few areas of the inquiry (5 or less)	2
Lists a few simple questions which may or may not identify key areas of the inquiry	1
No attempt at creating focus questions	0
Subtotal:	/3
Selection of sources
Selects a range of relevant sources that provide clear and accurate information and evidence about life in the ancient civilisation or culture Selects sources that show a variety of perspectives	5 - 6
Selects a few sources that provide some information and evidence about life in the ancient civilisation or culture Selects sources that show some differences in perspectives	3 - 4
Uses one source that provides limited information about life in the ancient civilisation or culture	1 - 2
No relevant sources used	0
Subtotal:	/6
Inquiry Notes
Makes notes that address the focus questions and use an appropriate note-taking structure/framework	2
Makes notes that contain some links to the focus questions and makes some use of an appropriate note-taking structure/framework	1
Notes do not address/link to the focus questions	0
Subtotal:	/2

Makes notes that are relevant to the key areas of the inquiry, including: • social structures • political and legal structures • military structures • economic activities • values, beliefs and traditions • cultural features, such as art, music and architecture	5 - 6
Makes notes that relate to some areas of the inquiry	3 - 4
Makes notes that relate to one/limited areas of the inquiry	1 - 2
Notes do not address/link to the key area/s of inquiry	0
Subtotal:	/6
Drafting conclusions
Drafts conclusions based on inquiry findings about the different life-styles of people in the ancient civilisation or culture, as determined by their individual wealth and power Uses examples and evidence to support the conclusions	3 - 4
Attempts to draft some conclusions about the different life-styles of people in the ancient civilisation or culture, as determined by their individual wealth and/or power Uses limited examples which may support the conclusions	1 - 2
No attempt at drafting conclusions	0
Subtotal:	/4
Bibliography
Follows correct format according to school protocols & has included annotations for all resources	3 - 4
Follows mostly the correct format according to school protocols & has included annotations for most resources	2
Lists sources used	1
No sources listed	0
Subtotal:	/4
TOTAL PART A	/25

Part 5b: Presentation

Description	Marks
Presentation of Research
Presents clear and accurate information about life in the selected ancient civilisation or culture, identifying key aspects of the social, political, legal, military, economic, religious and cultural structures and features of the civilisation	7 - 8
Presents clear information about life in the selected ancient civilisation or culture, identifying some aspects of the social, political, legal, military, economic, religious and/or cultural structures and features of the civilisation	5 - 6
Presents some information about life in the selected ancient civilisation or culture, identifying a few aspects of the social, political, legal, military, economic, religious or cultural structures and features of the civilisation	3 - 4
Presents limited information about life in the selected ancient civilisation or culture, identifying an aspect of the social, political, legal, military, economic, religious or cultural structures or features of the civilisation	1 - 2
Presentation of work incomplete	0
Subtotal:	/8
Evidence/Sources
Refers to a range of evidence from the sources	3
Refers to several pieces of evidence from the sources	2
Refers to minimal evidence from the sources	1
No relevant sources or evidence used	0
Subtotal:	/3
Expression of information
Expresses information clearly and in an organised way, using historical terminology and appropriate language	2
Expresses information briefly and in a way that may be difficult to follow, using little to no historical terminology and simple language	1
Information not expressed clearly	0
Subtotal:	/2

