

Ancient History General Year 11 Course Outline (2019)

Unit 1: ANCIENT CIVILISATIONS Late Bronze Age Greece and Troy c. 1500–c. 1050 BC
Course Outline: Unit 1 – Ancient civilisations and cultures In this unit, students investigate life in early civilisations, including the social, cultural, political, economic, religious, and military structures, and the significant values, beliefs, and traditions that existed. They discover how the world and its people have changed, as well as the significant legacies that exist into the present. Students are able to trace the development of some of the distinctive features of contemporary societies, for example, social organisation, systems of law, governance and religion, through an examination of ancient civilisations.
Course Outcomes The Ancient History General course is designed to facilitate achievement of the following outcomes: - Outcome 1: Historical Skills - Outcome 2: Understanding the Past - Outcome 3: Continuity and change in the ancient world

Unit 2: POWER IN THE ANCIENT WORLD
Alexander the Great, Macedonia, 356 - 323BCE
Julius Caesar, Rome, 100-44BCE
Course Outline: Unit 2 – Power in the Ancient World

In this unit, students learn that, in ancient societies, key individuals have acted as agents of change, interacting with groups and institutions, and using their power to shape their society. They investigate key individuals' motives, the methods they used to achieve power, the ways they used their power, the responses of others to their use of power, and their impact and influence on society. Students also learn that individuals, groups, and institutions have a variety of types of power, and that power is not distributed evenly throughout the society.
