

Yr 10 Science - Vehicles and Drivers revision

1. Define reaction time
2. Create a table with 'factors that affect reaction time' in one column and 'effects of factor' in the other
3. How is the total stopping distance of a car determined?
4. Explain the relationships between braking distance and speed.
5. Explain how you can recognise fatigue when driving
6. How do you avoid becoming fatigued
7. What happens to our nervous system as we age?
8. Why is alcohol such a big killer on our roads?
9. How is alcohol produced?
10. List some ways alcohol affects our central nervous system and explain the effects this has on our driving.

11. Create a table with 'drug' as one column heading and 'how drug affects your driving' as the other.

12. What are the two important aspects of vision that affect our driving. Explain why.

13. What are newtons three laws of motion? Give examples for each.

1. –

2. –

3. –

14. Complete this equation: Force=_____ x _____

Rearrange this formula