

Name: _____

Date: 5/5/22

Year 10 Economics and Business—

Introduction to Indicators of Economic Performance

(Cambridge – Pages 57- 63)

1. Define ‘trends’ and provide an example to support your definition.

2. Using Figure 2.4, state the following data, using the information provided.

- Unemployment rate (February 2021) - _____
- Average weekly earnings (November 2020) - _____

3. Differentiate between quantitative and qualitative data. Provide examples in relation to economics and business to support your response.

4. Define the following terms. Page 57

a. Economic growth

b. Inflation

c. Unemployment

5. State what GDP stands for.

G _____ D _____ P _____

A good answer will provide examples from the source, such as specific countries shown on the map and they would have stated the GDP per capita per country, using the key.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

8. Carefully read the text on Page 59 and address the following questions:

a. State India's and Australia's population.

India - _____

Australia - _____

b. State how much larger is India's population compared to Australia?

c. Under the measure explained in the text, state Australia and India's GDP per capita in USD.

India - _____

Australia - _____

d. State what USD stands for. _____

9. Using Figure 2.6 and the caption address the following questions:

a. State the name of the city shown in Figure 2.6. _____

b. State Western Australia's gross state product (GSP) in 2018-19.

c. State what percentage this was of Australia's total GDP in 2018-19. _____

10. Outline the factors not included in GDP.

* Quality of the natural environment

*

*

*

*

11. Outline the factors that are included in GDP.

* Production of pollutants (e.g. coal)

*

*

*

12. Outline what is meant by the 'Labour Force Survey'. (Page 60)

13. List the four types of unemployment. (Page 61)

*

*

*

*

14. Read the example and state the type of unemployment. You may like to use Table 2.1 to assist you.

a. Someone working on the snow fields as a ski-lift operator.

b. Someone who was working as a swimming instructor but is now seeking work as an accountant as they have just finished their degree.
