

Lesson 1: Organism interaction

Pictures of organisms and animals for food web activity

Instructions: Cut out each animal and give one to each student. Ask them to find the person carrying an organism that their animal will eat and link to it by both students holding the picture or linking arms. All students should be joined to each other by the end of the activity.

