

The rich

Many wealthy Americans resented having to pay higher taxes to pay for the work of the New Deal agencies. They were bitter that Roosevelt's policies had taken away some of their power.

SOURCE 5 A cartoon from the 1930s. The caption for this cartoon read, 'Mother, Wilfred wrote a bad word'

Attitudes regarding FDR's response to the C.D.

SOURCE 3 A cartoon from the 1930s, commenting on President Roosevelt's actions

SOURCE 4 From an article, 'They Hate Roosevelt', Harper's, May 1936

"A resident of Park Avenue [area where the rich lived] in New York City was sentenced not long ago to a term of imprisonment for threatening violence to the person of President Roosevelt. This episode ... was significant as a dramatically extreme manifestation of the fanatical hatred of the President which today obsesses thousands of men and women among the American upper class."

3. What are Sources 1 and 2 saying is wrong with the New Deal?
4. What view of Roosevelt is the cartoon in Source 3 supporting?
5. a) How does Source 4 help explain the message of the cartoon in Source 5? What are they both saying?
- b) How reliable is the opinion in Source 4?
6. a) In what ways are the cartoons in Sources 1, 3 and 5 useful as historical evidence?
- b) What are the problems of using cartoons as evidence?

Source 3 Historical context
+
Perspective